MARRONE LANDS TWO STAKES AT PIMLICO

Stable Puts Over J. J. Lillis and Wooden Shoes in Features.

Stable and Apprentice Jockey Kleeger scored a double win at Pimlico this afternoon when J. J. Lillis and Wooden Shoes Stable and Apprentice Jockey Kleeger scored a double win at Pimlico this afternoon when J. J. Lillis and Wooden Shoes accounted for both feature races respectively. In winning the Pikesville Handicas, with J. J. Lillis, the clever little lightweight, displayed rare horsemanship and good ability as a finisher, for he shot the Marrone gelding across the line when he was apparently beaten. J. J Lillis went to the front after the field went a quarter and set a fast pace, but quit when challenged by Jacoba Kleeger went to the whip like a demon at the eighth pole and the gelding responded with rare gameneas under the lash and outgamed the Coe filly in the last few strides.

World's championship pocket billiard match between Frank Tabersky, the including the next challenger in line, Edward I. Raiph, of Hightstown, N. J., staged in the National Capital.

According to the rules under which the championship emblem is played for, it is necessary that the winner shall defend his title within forty days after winning it, and as Tabersky, the "Silent Pole," disposed of Ralph Greenleaf, in New York City, on Qctober 21, he must again meet an opponent not later than December 1.

P. B. Fletcher, local manager of the Brunswick Balke-Collender Company, strides.

L. Wood's Stonewood won the jump in handy fashion from Sharpshooter. He showed good ability as a hurdler and held his opposition safe the entire trip. Falmouth, a heavily backed choice, fell held his opposition safe the entire trip. Falmouth, a heavily backed choice, fell while in a contending position. The Kentuckians scored when Julia L. handily accounted for the fifth event on the card from Sasin and Vermont. She was well backed in the machines. Clifford A. Cochran's Fairy Wand had little trouble in winning the initial event, a seven furlong affair for 2 year olds. Arnold, the favorite, disappointed after stepping a fast three-quarters. The Earle colt then faded to nothing, giving away to the Cochran filly, which had followed closely on the heels of the leaders.

Sherman, when seen last night, said:
"Cafritz and myself have entered into a mutual agreement to bring the Tabersky-Ralph match here, and we are going to leave no stone unturned in our endeavor to bring this pocket billiard classic to Washington. With the co-operation of other proprietors of billiard and pocket billiard parlors, I have very reason to believe that we from Norfolk, Baltimore, Richmond, from the classic to the match played in this city."

In Hoppe's opinion, Sutton has "gone back" considerably. He believes that the challenger's poor showing in their match at Moolah Temple was due to the fact that Sutton has lost much of his old-time cunning. "Sutton's stroke wasn't the same as in former years," added Hoppe. "When we played before he didn't fumble his cue as he did in the last match and he shot faster, requiring far less time to figure his shots than he did in the St. Louis match."
